National Philatelic
Office Of Venezuela

I am glad to inform you that the Venezuelan Government has just published a decree establishing the National Philatelic Office. The object of this Office is to further interest in Venezuelan stamps, in this country and abroad, and to ensure their status of integrity and genuineness by investigating clandestine issues, counterfeiters, etc.

Apart from a Philatelic Library and Museum, the Office is to establish a permanent exhibition of Venezuelan postal stamps, of current and previous issues. It is also to maintain a constant adequate stock of Venezuelan stamps of current issues (stamps actually in circulation), for sale in complete sets or full sheets. Besides, it is authorized to dispose of remnants of issues out of circulation etc. in such a way as to safeguard philatelic interests.

The National Philatelic Office is also entrusted with planning new issues, organizing contests for new designs, etc.

It is to carry a register of Venezuelan philatelists and stamp dealers, to establish an Information Service, and to maintain contact with similar official institutions in other countries.

This can be considered as the most important step so far towards taking philatelic interests into account in the issuance of Venezuelan stamps, and ensuring their status. I hope it will still increase interest in Venezuelan issues with philatelists in all parts of the world.

SPA Convention News

Speaking of shortages, if you are going to attend the 52nd annual S. P. A. Convention in Cleveland August 14th to 18th, it is a wise plan to get your hotel reservations in early as rooms will be at a premium. Dr. N. P. McGay, 1001 East 105th Street, Cleveland 8, Ohio, will be glad to make reservations for you if you will contact him at once.

Additional shortages are indicated by Mr. Emmet Ong, room 700 Hanna Bldg. who has charge of the bourse tables and from latest reports there are very few tables left.

The suggestion for the day is that unless you care to come by trailer or sell your stamps from your vest pocket reservations for rooms and bourse tables are in order. Our committee chairmen will be glad to assist you.

There is NO shortage of fine cups to be awarded the exhibition winners and many beautiful ribbons are on hand. For a prospectus write to the General Chairman Dr. N. P. McGay.

FAMOUS AMERICANS IN BLOCKS

While looking for a paper clip recently we were surprised to find a quantity of very fine to superb sets of used blocks of the Famous Americans, hiding behind a pencil. It was a rather large pencil, sort of King Size.

While our small stock of three hundred sets remains, we can offer these at $1.50 per set. Doubt if you can find them offered for less elsewhere; you certainly cannot find them offered anywhere else in better shape!

SYNOPTIC COLLECTION.

As long ago as 1925 I met some collectors from Chicago who had already started a collection of used U.S. with the cancellations being all precanceled instead of post-canceled. I cannot remember when it was nor who it was applied the name of Synoptic to this form of collecting. I do know it has been some time now, all of five years to say the least. I am sure if you search my column in LINN'S you will find me mentioning this form of collecting several times and quite likely in detail. So Synoptic collecting cannot be called NEW. The idea of adding Foreign countries to its scope is a New angle. Whether this will appeal to the collector remains to be seen. I believe that I have my fingers on the pulse of the precancel collecting fraternity as much as any collector in the country and as yet I have not sensed any movement in the Synoptic direction. Personally I would be glad to see non-precancel collectors take up this form of collecting as I feel they would in the process lose some of their prejudices and quite possibly branch out into some other field of precancel collecting. Bluntly and frankly speaking I have seen other good forms of collecting played up and written up before. I've tried it myself and no one could accuse me of having an axe to grind, yet little or no visible heed was paid to the admonitions offered and no one ever got anywhere that I know of. It has been my observation that any form of collecting is a spontaneous outburst from the collectors themselves, when, where, and how it will react next no one knows. That to me is a fact. Right now Towns and Types are in the top seat. Next year it might be something else. I have seen the Bi-cent come and go. The Double lines. The Wide and Narrow Defense Bureaus. Now

THIS MATTER OF COMPLAINTS

Not a week goes by but what we have some sort of complaint from some stamp collector concerning a transaction with another collector or perhaps with a dealer. Many of these complaints are over petty matters concerning the exchange of 100 assorted precancel stamps for something that was to be sent in return. Others cover various other matters all the way from complaining that inquiries had been sent to several dealers and that no reply was received.

Geo. W. Linn

Taken on the whole, the number of really justifiable complaints that reach our office are very small, which we think speaks very highly for the stamp collecting fraternity as a whole. People who have been in stamps for a number of years will tell you from their own personal experience that stamp collectors as a whole are pretty reliable people. The principal reason for this is that if one who is not so attempts to enter into the hobby and practice unethical acts he is found out so soon and is shunned so quickly that he is not long in the game for stamp collectors do not approve of such acts.

The bulk of any complaints over petty dealings usually concern new entrants into the hobby who have not yet learned the high ethics that must be observed by one who hopes to continue in the hobby.

Let me analyze a couple of recent complaints, let us see if the complainants are justified in their acts.

Here is one from a collector in Omaha who complains because he sent a California collector a lot of 150 precancel stamps for which the California collector was to send a like number in return. It so happens according to our Omaha correspondent that the material sent him in return was "trash" according to his statements. Along with the so called trash the California collector sent a printed slip which stated, "All stamps received in exchange are held intact sixteen days so that if what is sent you is not satisfactory, notify me and your stamps will be returned."

Rather than return the unsatisfactory stamps the Omaha collector sets up a howl, writes us, wants the California collector disbarred from the use of our classified columns and all that. Point of the matter is that the Omaha collector has no justifiable complaint. First thing he should have done if what he received in exchange was unsatisfactory was to have returned the stamps to California. Then, and only then, if the California collector did not return his stamps or send him stamps that were to his liking, would he have any complaint. We pointed this out to the Omaha man, but he still raves at us for not seeing things his way.

We have every reason to believe the California man is in the right for the very reason that this is the first complaint of this nature we have had from anyone concerning his transactions and since he has made his trade offer persistently we are obliged to believe that others with whom he has traded are pleased.

Another complaint comes from a collector who states that he wrote several dealers asking for stamps of Native Indian States on approval. He got not even a reply to any of his letters.

We can believe that this is true, although we do believe that the more established dealers should at last have a system of replying to almost any inquiry in the belief that such action might create friendship for future business. However on the other hand there are probably not three or four dealers in America who could submit much in the way of Native Indian States on approval and the stock of most dealers might consist of a few varieties which even they have little regard for as saleable stamps.

When a man is looking for the hard things to find he just can not expect the dealers who have none of them to get excited about corresponding about such matters. We would believe that the cheapest and best way for this man to find what he wants would be to write only to the very largest and best known names in the trade and few of these could probably be of help to him on this line.

There is plenty of room for improvement in the business methods of stamp dealers and what makes the whole trade look bad is the fact that there are so many who pose as stamp dealers, yet lack the first rudiments of doing business of any kind in a proper manner that the whole trade must suffer from their acts.

Too often, collectors write letters of inquiry to dealers asking questions concerning things of interest to themselves alone and without even enclosing a stamp for reply, let alone an addressed stamped envelope so that a reply might be easily and quickly made.

We usually get several such letters each week, many of them being scribbled on postal cards. We would advise any collector who wants information to always include a stamped and addressed envelope for reply.

Much of the unpleasantness that is complained of could be avoided if the collector would but take the time to analyze the advertisement which he proposes to answer and to study his papers from week to week and learn from such study which dealers appear to be in the game for sound business reasons and which would be most likely to appreciate the business that you propose to do with them.

In these days of "Bank Charges" some of the little men are those who endorse twenty-five cent checks and forward them as remittances rather than cash them at their own banks and pay the costs.

USED U. S.

With the present high market conditions along philatelic lines, many collectors are unable to purchase the stamp that will eliminate that "little white square" in their albums. For those collectors whose buying power is limited, the following items in Grade "B" condition are offered. *These are collectible items that may be straight edged, perf initialed, have slight thin spots, tears, etc. We classify them as "Seconds" although most people would call them good copies.

WHO'S WHO IN STAMPS

by Lee Chadwick

STEPHEN W. GERBER

One of the most fabulous stories a stamp collector could wish for is the real life story of a man intimately associated with our hobby, Stephen W. Gerber, who owns and personally operates the National Stamp Company, at 1105 Russ Building, San Francisco.

Steve, as his friends call him, started collecting over 35 years ago and has accumulated a stock of very fine U. S. valued well in excess of $100,000. He still is a large buyer, and his unusual ad offering to pay up to 10% of his selling prices for U. S. mint resulted in his spending over $30,000 so far this year. But big business comes natural to him.

In addition to operating this successful stamp firm, Stephen W. Gerber is vice president of the largest syndicate of independent Pennsylvania oil companies and directs sales in the Western States and Pacific area that run into millions of dollars annually. Yet the National Stamp Company is his special love and avocation and we are told he would rather sell a dollar's worth of stamps to a satisfied "client" (as he calls his philatelic customers) than a carload of oil!

His enthusiasm as a dealer is clearly reflected in his constant efforts to help in the elimination of undesirable practices in the stamp trade, as well as to contribute a steady influence through the practice of streamlined, ethical methods and by active membership in such organizations as the ASDA, APS, SPA and BIA.

Mr. Gerber's chief line of trade in stamps is filling wants for U. S. mint on approval. Quality, price and personal service have earned for him the warm friendship and confidence of many leading collectors throughout the nation. Already established as among the most active and important buyers of fine mint U. S., he extends greatest personal care and interest to all his business contacts, sending out his check on the same day that a consignment is received.

Steve Gerber also finds time for national and civic affairs, serving as general chairman of the War Activities Committee of the Shrine in San Francisco, Rotary, Red Cross, Community Fund and other similar activities command his attention.

His great love is our Navy, and the Stephen W. Gerber Library at the Naval Academy in Annapolis is a monument to his interest. Steve also created and individually financed "The House of the Elect" for Naval officers going through San Francisco after action in the Pacific. Sleeping quarters for eight, a ball room, two bars, good food and refreshment always are available for the use of admirals and ensigns alike.

His eldest son is a Navy doctor who distinguished himself as surgeon on the Tennessee at both Iwo Jima and Okinawa. The second son, Ralph, is an honor graduate of Annapolis, class of 1940, and was the youngest lieutenant-commander in the history of our nation.

Steve Gerber loves to talk stamps and welcomes collectors who visit his city. Chances are you will not find him at his office, but through his telephone listing will locate him working on his stamps at his palatial home on Eighteenth Avenue adjoining San Francisco's famous Presidio. In magnificent surroundings, his four story home is situated on an acre of beautifully landscaped grounds overlooking the Golden Gate.

We relay this invitation hesitantly, for fear of keeping Mr. Gerber so busy playing host that he will have no time for other activities. However, he has urged us to tell our readers (remember, over 20,000 of them, Mr. Gerber!) that there is a standing invitation for you to call and visit him when you are in San Francisco. We're certain any of you who take up that invitation will be glad you did.

The line forms on the right!

The Danes And Swedes Mess Up Fine Set Of Amer. Airlines Covers

Information of interest comes in a letter from Mr. C. B. McManus Jr., who is in charge of the Philatelic Division of the American Airlines System.

First Mr. McManus compliments Linn's Weekly when he states that "A large part of the requests we received were from collectors who had seen the announcement in your paper."

"The letter at hand has to do with the flights to Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Holland and to points between the foreign countries.

The flights were all carried out as scheduled but the trouble came with regard to flights between the different foreign countries, Sweden to Denmark and Denmark to Sweden and from both countries back to New York.

As a result the only covers handled were New York to Sweden; New York to Denmark; New York to Norway; Norway to New York; New York to Holland; Holland to New York; Norway to Sweden; Sweden to Norway; Norway to Denmark and Denmark to Norway.

Swedish and Danish officials refused to accept and handle covers from Sweden to Denmark and Denmark to Sweden, also covers from both countries to New York. The reason for this refusal being that the Swedish officials claim that the Swedish Airlines had made the first flight to the United States.

This fact of course is not disputed by American Airlines, the fault lies with the fact that regardless of what airlines may have made what other flights, the flights by the American Airlines were their first flights over this route and as such, collectors wanted covers for the flights.

Because of this situation the American Airlines are refunding money to all collectors who remitted for the four flights which did not carry covers.

Mr. McManus further points out that regarding statements in some stamp papers, that the American Airlines were making money on these flight covers, that such is not the case, for the cost of printing, addressing, shipping the covers and now making refunds for covers not supplied because of the refusal of the Swedish Airlines to carry the covers has made the cost far more than the prices asked for such covers.

Mr. McManus further states that the American Airlines is not, as some stamp papers have stated, going to take the covers refused, back to Sweden and Denmark and have them canceled on the date of the first flight. These covers were not flown and the American Airlines will not lend their aid to taking up covers in this manner.

For the information of collectors, the following covers were carried. New York to Sweden 3000; New York to Denmark 3000; New York to Norway 1500; Norway to New York 1200; New York to Holland 2000; Holland to New York 1000; Norway to Sweden 900; Sweden to Norway 800; Norway to Denmark 800 and Denmark to Norway 800.

The Holland to New York covers are sold out, a small stock

STAMPIC CHATTER

by Eulalia Turner

Conditions being what they are and with no immediate relief to be spotted anyplace along the distant horizons, many there are who figure the approaching summer will be quite the snappiest and busiest if not the wildest in the history of both stamp collecting and dealing.

Sure, off-hand, it's natural for the cry of vacation periods and folded albums for the duration of said vacation season to erupt like Leo Durocher charging the ump; but slow down and back up a couple of red-lights, buddy. Even though vacation period is drawing close, who has the tires to make that long planned jaunt this summer? What hotels will accept your reservation so far in advance? Where are you going to rent that little tepee, wigwam, igloo or shanty beside the cool, refreshing lake or mountain stream as in other days? And what tourist court is going to kick its regular paid in advance by the month customer out to make room for you?

Now there's many more angles to be considered than those few mentioned above, it's readily admitted. And everybody is anxious to cast off for the vacation of vacations which has been planned for the past four or five years. But everything is against the project if peace, comfort, relaxation and genuine enjoyment is to be obtained from the jaunt. So the chances are gobs and gobs of people who planned that this would be the summer will postpone it for another summer and stick right by the old homestead. They know what conditions are in their own locale; from correspondence with friends and relatives strewn across the nation they also know that identical conditions prevail from Sleepy-Eye, Minn., to DelRio, Texas and back. They also know that people all winter have been sleeping in their cars, doubling and even tripling up with neighbors, friends and relatives and that millions are desperately seeking just anything resembling a shanty in which to move. . . . So it looks as if the majority will stick to their own precincts another summer and keep their albums humming as the cheapest and surest way to spend the season in comfort and peace without the grief and worry the highway and tourist cabins enroute are certain to create.

So with not a few eagerly awaited new issues of major importance scheduled for release this summer, she indeed looks like one of the busiest of all summer seasons.

In Reno there's a physician who is confining his collecting to

FRASEK COMPANY

DEFLATION...

With glorified wood pulp stockings for the ladies at $3.00, cotton shirts for the gentlemen at $10.00, neckties all the way up to $1000.00 and even stamps worth 5c a 100, fetching $50.00 a 100. (Roosevelt sale; I was there), it will come as a shock to gaze at these very modest requests.

(1) 10 cents

One silver dime sent my way will bring some beautiful samples of the unusual Philatelic Maps (worth 50c retail). Add 5c extra for postage.

(2) $1.00

Or a dollar bill will bring the first 60 Philatelic Maps we printed. Included in the 60 is a remarkable series of miniature maps dealing with the U. S. A.

(3) $3.00

Or hang the expense and go the limit! Send $3.00 in currency and you will get the first 60 Philatelic Maps printed, plus the next 80 we shall print, spaced over the next few months, plus several dollars worth of good stamps, plus various circulars and offers during the next few months, plus half rates on still other innovations.

Someday you will investigate what this is all about; it might as well be now. I have on hand over 12,000 letters praising The Mailing List Service (official name for the only service of its kind in the world). No one by the way is bothered with unsolicited approvals. I do sell stamps of course, mostly on approval and requests for such are welcome BUT I cannot promise to send them out promptly. Although I've one of the largest stocks of stamps on this continent, it's still a one horse business, meaning personal attention is given to each and every customer which is the way I feel it should be. Trouble is, at times there is just too much work so stamps don't go out as fast as desired.

MAPS FOR THE 48 STATES

The Philatelic Maps cover only foreign countries but lately I've had so many requests for miniature maps for the 48 states that I will issue a special set of these. For the benefit of those who don't know what Philatelic Maps are, will say they are beautiful copyrighted multi-colored (soft pastel shades) uniform size (2 3/4" x 4") maps just the right size to put on an album page, cover etc. The 48 State maps will be most useful to tie in with the various special State issues, precancel collections, first day covers, etc. They are costly things to produce. The plates alone will set me back $600.00. Also it will take several months to draw and print them. Advance orders, however, will be accepted at the special rate of $1.00 for the 48 maps. Delivery of the maps will be made as fast as completed in units of 8. Once the 48 are completed price goes up to $2.00 for the 48 so better order as many sets as needed in advance at $1.00. Special rates to dealers.

A LORDLY CANADIAN

Those who collect Canadian Revenue stamps are painfully aware one space at least is a tough one to fill. There is a beautiful engraved job in green, put out not so long ago at that, less than 20 years as a matter of fact, which is known as the $5.00 War Saving Stamp. They say a few lucky individuals up and down this continent own a copy. I've seen one copy in New York, owner being none other than, Mr. H. L. Lindquist of "Stamps". Who else has one? Please write in. I'm, of course, in the market to buy them but if not for sale, write anyway. Any collector or dealer who does have one for sale, by all means get in touch with me, as I will pay rather fancy prices, enough to at least finance a goodly share of one of those neckties mentioned in the first paragraph! By the way am always in the market for any first class Canada revenues, proofs, essays, precancels etc.

NOW FOR SOME BUSINESS

Having dinner with a number of philatelic stalwarts, while recently in New York, I was introduced to a newcomer, who promptly came out with: "Bileski? Oh yes you're the fellow who is always advertising 'send me something and I'll send you something'". Correct; that to put it simply, is the way I do business and it has worked very well indeed over 25 years. There is the occasional complaint but then a prompt refund always takes care of this. So to close I invite readers to send the largest sum they can afford and in return I'll send the greatest value I can give for the amount sent in. Any sum from 10c to $1000.00 is O. K. with me. Give a general outline of what to avoid or what interests you most, whether quality or quantity is wanted and I'll do the rest. There will either be one more pleasantly surprised collector or else a prompt refund, or I might even return the money without sending any stamps. It all depends on whether from the facts given me I feel your collection would benefit.

Best form of remittance is U. S. currency. Add 18c to checks to cover cost of cashing such in Canada.

a branch which unquestionably will interest many another philatelist. . . Dr. Charles L. Tranter seeks only stamps picturing physicians, medical scientists, hospitals, hospital ships, Red Cross issues and issues put out in the interest of scientific fights against tuberculosis, cancer and kindred diseases. . . Come to think of it, there never has been so much national if not international interest in the gallant though stubbornly slow fight against disease as right now. . . Almost hourly the radio and the press remind us of drives for funds to combat this or that disease and the world really is becoming epidemic conscious. . . And Dr. Tranter certainly is sticking close to his profession in limiting his album pages to just such instances.

Southern California Housing Tip: Unless you're carrying spot cash so you can lay it on the line, you're running grave risks coming out here blind, brother. . . If you can mess up the living room floor of the owner with a lot of greasy currency, you can find your shanty. . . And if the owner is a good guy, he'll give you a stray room to park in while papers clear escrow—and if he isn't a good guy, he'll make you stand up in a tourist court—if you can find one!—for from three to six weeks while escrow papers are being cleared and that, believe me, runs into fast and surprising sugar but quick! . . . And if you buy a renter-occupied house, you've got a six-months wait ere you can get into your newly acquired house if the renters want to take full advantage of existing OPA rules—so buy an owner-occupied house for quick results. . . The really good houses have been well picked over, gobbled up and removed from the market—plenty of old moth-eaten, termite-gnawed and roller-coaster-floored shanties left but at what a breath-taking price! And conditions are getting no better fast, believe me. . . Just to show you: Four weeks ago I took on a wigwam. . . Last night it could have been sold for a tempting $1,200 profit, cash in the apron and no questions asked as they wanted to buy a place they'd passed up two months ago at $500 less than I paid for it! . . . And within a radius of four blocks, there are actually seven unfinished new houses which haven't had a stick of work done on them in the past five months and which hardly will have much more done on them in the next five months. She's tough, buddy; hang on to what you've got.

NOT AN OLD HAM, PRINTERS ERROR

I note on your page 11, April 25th issue, Arnold's write-up of the Gimbel's Roosevelt Album I note a Mr. Oldham mentions. As I gave Mr. Arnold what information I had, I still don't think I am an old ham and don't think your readers will recognize it for Oldham. So please mention this and give your readers a laugh.

New Stamp Center In Mansfield, Ohio

Sidney L. Yellen, of Mansfield, Ohio has opened the Mansfield Stamp and Coin Shop at 90 1-2 N. Main street in that city. Mr. Yellen reports that local collectors are enthusiastic over his venture and that splendid local support is looked for. Let us hope that this may help in the revival of the Mansfield Stamp Club which was quite a promising organization before the war.

Mr. Yellen will endeavor to carry a line of stamps and coins and supplies for collectors and among these will be Linn Philatelic Products. Mr. Yellen was formerly from Cleveland, has been a collector for years and has just recently returned from a world tour with the Merchant Marine.

SS and SA The last two stamps issued to commemorate the 12th anniversary of Nazi uprising known as B292-93 these stamps are now in great demand, and supplies are limited. The pair for $4.75. Free lists or new issue approvals sent on request.

AM-19: JACKSON, WYOMING as new stop between Idaho Falls, Idaho, and West Yellowstone, Montana.

AM-35: extension (in part) from Rapid, S. Dakota, to Sheridan, Wyoming.

AM-39: VALDOSTA, GEORGIA as new stop between

AM-39: PANAMA CITY, FLORIDA, as new stop between Tallahassee, Florida, and Pensacola, Florida.

AM-39: Extension from Pensacola, Florida, over the Gulf of Mexico to Tampa, Florida, and then to Miami, Florida. NOTE: Without any advanced notice, this flight occurred on April 28th.

In addition, routes were also awarded to three "regional carriers." A full description of these routes will appear in next week's column.

A correction. Effective with its meeting of May 10th, the Metropolitan Airmail Cover Club will hold its meetings on the second Friday of each month at the HOTEL TIMES SQUARE, 8th Ave. and 43rd St., New York City. Visitors are always welcome to these meetings, which are held on the second Friday of each month.

Lel's Have The Truth About The 70c Liberia Roosevelt Air Mail

Dealers are looking with suspicion on the handling of the 70c Roosevelt Air Mail stamp of Liberia. The price for this stamp has been far beyond what any legitimately issued stamp should sell for when first issued.

We are not entirely familiar with the set up for distribution of the Liberian stamps as it now exists but do feel that in so far as distribution is concerned, there are dealers who sent remittance some months ago for these stamps and failed to get any of them.

The stamps are plentiful if you want to pay the price but the price indicates a racketeering handling of this stamp for the very reason that the Liberian Government would have received 70c each for the stamps sold and there would have been a market for many thousands of the stamps.

One thing that might be done and should be done for the benefit of the collector at least is a

SENDING CURRENCY ABROAD

We have previously printed a statement that it is forbidden to send U. S. Currency abroad. This report came to us from a stamp dealer and we printed it without any attempt to verify the matter from Washington.

It seems that various stamp dealers are asking for remittances in U. S. Funds. It also seems that too many people do not know the difference between currency or coins, and U. S. Funds.

Currency is U. S. Paper money and coins are coins as we all know. U. S. Funds however are remittances by Money Order, Check, Draft or any bankable funds and not U. S. Paper Money. It is permitted to send remittances abroad if you send same by Check, Money Order or other such means.
